Paperless Records, The High Tech Infrastructure:

The first step in developing a successful high tech office is creating a technology infrastructure. This course will feature basic management programs, paperless records and networking as well as, hardware considerations, what to buy and what to pay. And a brief look at room layout, or where do you put all this stuff?

The Digital Image Revolution:

Once the infrastructure is in place the next step is the “BigTwo” images and x-rays. This course will feature image management, digital cameras, cosmetic imaging, digital radiography, hi tech diagnostics and advanced cool stuff.

These programs are great for both the dentist and the entire dental team. They will help you understand how to implement technology to save both time and money. It is so easy to make an expensive mistake, do not make any major technology decisions until you have seen Dr. Emmott’s program
